Wear Carhartt Clothing to Work Everyday

Carhartt Rental Apparel available exclusively from Cintas

Cincinnati, Oh. February 1, 2010– Cintas Corporation (Nasdaq:CTAS), North America’s largest uniform supplier, has partnered with Carhartt, a global manufacturer of premium workwear, to offer a line of Carhartt garments designed specifically for the uniform rental market.

With Carhartt Rental Workwear, workers will welcome the rugged durability and unparalleled quality they receive from Carhartt clothing when on the job. Each garment is constructed with tried and true Carhartt DNA, such as the triple-needle stitching and generous work-functional pockets that are built tough, just like the people who wear them. Employees will appreciate the convenience of the laundry, repair and replacement benefits that accompany the Cintas service.

Carhartt is not only the preferred brand of the active worker, but a choice that employees can wear proudly and comfortably. And a Carhartt Rental Workwear program only from Cintas is the most cost effective way to receive the most trusted brand in work apparel each day.

“In many cases, uniforms are a major part of a company’s success,” said Steve Carter, Vice President of Corporate Sales for Carhartt. “Cintas uniform programs have helped businesses grow by promoting professional appearances while keeping employees safe and comfortable on the job.”

The new line of Carhartt Rental Workwear will include a long and short sleeve Work Shirt available in Blue and Sandstone, a Carpenter Jean, a 5-Pocket Work Jean and Canvas Dungaree Pants available in Navy and Carhartt Brown.
