Regeneration™ Suiting Collection

Exclusive to Cintas, made of 100% recycled polyester produced entirely from post consumer waste

- One single suit is made out of approximately 25 recycled 2-liter plastic bottles.

- According to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), apparel made from recycled material uses 66% less energy compared to the manufacturing of polyester fiber. This process also reduces water usage by 90% and helps eliminate harmful air emissions.

- Regeneration™ is designed to be machine washable as a convenient, cost-efficient care option compared to most suiting apparel.

Modern Eco Stretch Pants Collection

The ultimate comfort and stretch for everyday wear using Repreve® polyester yarn made of 100% recycled materials

- Recycling leverages the reuse of materials already made from natural resources to convert waste materials into high-quality fabrics.

- On average, every pound of Repreve® yarn conserves the equivalent of half a gallon of gasoline, totaling 10 million gallons of gas that will be saved by 2010 making recycled yarns.

- Repreve® is a member of the 1% For the Planet organization, which donates 1% of their profit to selected environmental causes. As a result of this partnership, your environmental impact grows with each purchase made from this collection over time.
Park Inn offers a comprehensive hotel employee uniform program that reflects the brand’s vibrant and distinctive style. Developed in collaboration with the brand design team and hotel general managers, the apparel program highlights a fresh retail design, balancing style with comfort and function.

Whether you choose a tailored or more casual design, the program offers more style and color options to best reflect your hotel’s local market and the essence of Park Inn. Best of all, it’s easy to implement as colors have been carefully selected to offer hotels variety, while ensuring all combinations result in a professional unified image.

Ordering is easy at www.cintas.com/parkinn or contact a Park Inn Cintas representative at 1-800-UNIFORM.
